Harsha Devi

Women's Health Education & Community Reach

BACKGROUND

Pharm-D graduate Liaquat University of Medical and Health Sciences

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Clinical pharmacy · Regulatory affairs
Medical writing · Healthcare networks

Women's health knowledge. Closer to everyday life.

Harsha brings more than three years of healthcare experience across clinical pharmacy, regulatory affairs and medical writing. She translates scientific information into accessible content, bringing a healthcare perspective to how women's health education reaches communities.

At Nuria, she connects pharmacists, clinicians, universities and women's-health communities in Pakistan. Her focus is helping clear health education reach more women through the people and networks they already trust.

WOMEN'S HEALTH EDUCATION

Help accessible health information reach women in everyday settings.

TRUSTED HEALTHCARE CONNECTIONS

Connect pharmacists, clinicians and universities around women's health education.

COMMUNITY REACH

Bring Nuria's resources closer to women through the communities they trust.

AREAS OF FOCUS

Women's health education · Community engagement · Healthcare networks
Regional growth · Distribution partnerships · Pakistan

Across borders. Around her.
